Dr. Michelle Aszterbaum

Dr. Michelle Aszterbaum is an Assistant Clinical Professor with the Department of Dermatology at UC Irvine and also works in private practice.

She received her MD at the University of California, Davis School of Medicine and interned in internal medicine at Harvard Medical School's Massachusetts General Hospital. She then completed her dermatology residency at the University of California, San Francisco.

She is a researcher in non-melanoma skin cancer treatment and prevention, especially in basal cell nevus syndrome patients. She hosts and operates the only confocal device available in the Orange County community.

Target Audience: The target audience for the Department of Dermatology Grand Rounds is attending physicians, fellows, community physicians and other health care professionals.

Statement of Purpose: The format will include lectures detailing diagnosis, management and therapeutic interventions for selected dermatologic topics, and occasional case presentations with review of interesting cases. Clinical test results and radiographic findings will also be included. Current landmark research findings will be discussed.

Accreditation statement: The UC Irvine School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Dermatologic Grand Rounds Global Objectives

- Summarize core competencies in Dermatology as identified by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education.
- Assessment and management of complex skin diseases including but not limited to cancer.
- Cite current research findings in the field of dermatology and dermatopathology.
- Discuss key issues in the delivery of dermatologic care to a wide range of therapeutic modalities and combination therapy to increase efficacy and minimize side effect profiles.

Designation statement: The UC Irvine School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 3 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
